President Arnold R. Kilpatrick
Ten Years of Leadership

Greetings from the President:

It is a privilege to extend greetings via the Potpourri.

When you thumb through the pages of this book and reflect upon the hours spent at NSU, may you be reminded and be proud of the rich heritage you possess as a student here, the 92 years of service NSU has provided, the academic excellence, the opportunity to learn, to contribute, to participate, and to enrich your life through the total college experience.

It has been my pleasure to be associated with you this year.

Sincerely,

Arnold R. Kilpatrick
Arnold R. Kilpatrick

The University

This is the University. These are the faces and the places that we grew to know and to love. This is the place where we came and encountered new people, new experiences, and a new way of life.

This was the place of involvement and of learning; the time of trials and tribulations, and of happiness and success.

This was the time when we learned how to meet the demands of each new day, the times when we were forced to meet tomorrow with calmness and understanding.

This is the place that has enriched our lives, the place where we grew stronger — physically, emotionally, academically, and professionally.

As we turn the pages of this yearbook, may we all feel proud that Northwestern State University has become a part of our lives. This is the University.

College of Business

The College of Business was divided into the two fields of business administration and business education.

The curriculum of business administration provided preparation for careers in business, the military, and civic or institutional management.

The field of business education provided preparation for teaching business at the secondary level and for gaining secretarial positions.

The College of Business, with its enrollment of 734 students, proposed to establish a sense of high moral and ethical standards for those who intend to engage in business activities.

RIGHT: Dr. David Townsend, Dean of the College of Business.

College of Education

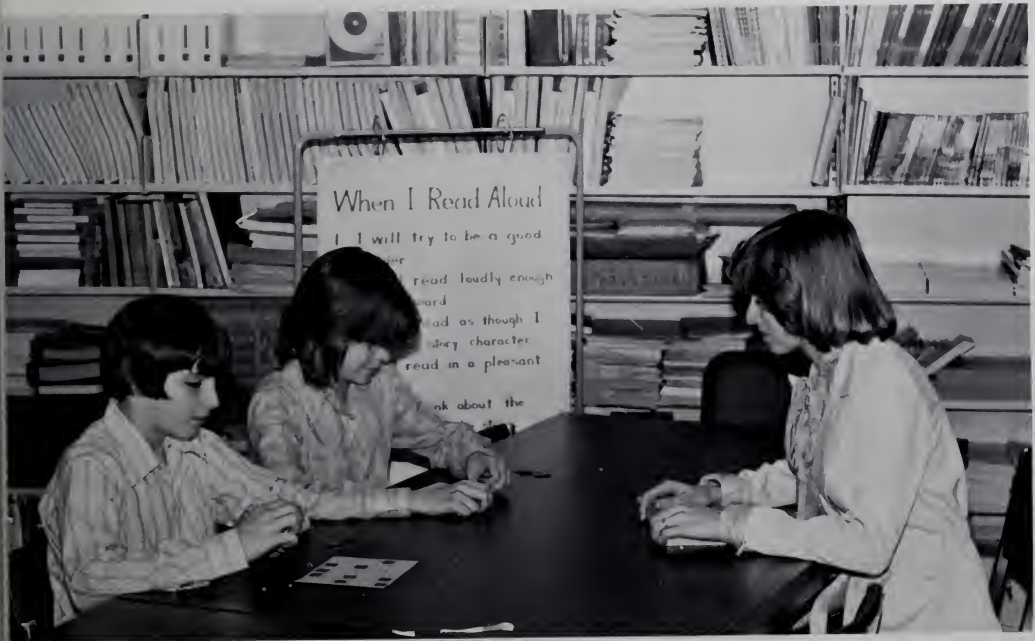

The College of Education was the largest college on campus having an enrollment of 1,155. The college had three areas in which to base their purposes; these were beliefs, general objectives, and professional objectives.

With the belief that a child's mind is very important and special, the College of Education stressed the development of critical thinking and initiative.

The department of General Studies was also included in the College of Education, with an enrollment of 1,342.

College of Liberal Arts

The College of Liberal Arts, with its enrollment of 405, was dedicated to extending and broadening the education of students beyond the limits of their chosen careers. It was also concerned with providing services to the community outside the walls of the classroom.

All degree programs were fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The department of Music was accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

RIGHT: Dr. George Stokes, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

College of Nursing

The faculty of the College of Nursing believed that the essence of professional nursing was a commitment to serve humanity. With an enrollment of 1,093, the program of studies was set up to allow prospective nurses to pursue their freshman and sophomore studies on the Natchitoches campus and to complete their junior and senior studies on the Shreveport campus.

RIGHT: Dr. Peggy Ledbetter, Dean of the College of Nursing.

College of Science and Technology

The College of Science and Technology had an enrollment of 585. Its primary purpose was the provision of scientific and technological programs allowing students an opportunity to pursue degree programs in the pure and applied sciences. Seventy percent of the faculty holds doctorate degrees. Northwestern annually hosts the Region Four and State Fairs as a contribution to scientific development in the state of Louisiana.

RIGHT: Dr. Rene J. Bienvenu, Dean of the College of Science and Technology.

Graduate School

The Graduate School at Northwestern is one of the oldest among the universities under the State Board of Trustees for Colleges and Universities.

Over the years, through creative and innovative planning, it has expanded its offerings to meet the needs of its clientele. Quality has been the essential ingredient among those that are responsible for the fact that the Graduate School's enrollment, which totals 1,125, is among the largest of those in the state.

Miss NSU — Donna King

Donna King, kindergarten and primary special education major, was very active during her college career. She served as chapter president of Sigma Kappa sorority and was chosen as the Outstanding Sorority Woman of 1976. She was a member of this year's State Fair Court and was elected as Who's Who Among American College Students. Donna was a member of the Student Body Association and the Student Governing Board. She held several committee positions with these two organizations and served as president of the Purple Jackets honorary service organization for women.

Mr. NSU — Stan Haynes

Stan Haynes, distributive education major, was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and served as Vice-President of Men on the Student Body Association. He served as a NSU cheerleader for two years and lettered two years as an athletic football trainer for Northwestern. Stan served as a senator-at-large in the SBA and was a member of the university's Interracial Committee. He was also elected to Who's Who Among College Students.

Mr. and Miss NSU

Mr. and Miss NSU elections began in 1956. This was the highest honor which can be awarded to a student at this university. Donna and Stan were chosen by a campus-wide election. They were chosen on the basis of service to the university and community, on leadership, scholarship, and character.

GEORGE DOHERTY

Athletic Director

Coach Doherty was elevated to full time athletic director at Northwestern on November 23, 1974, after having served as NSU's head football coach for three seasons. This year he was co-ordinating plans for the completion of NSU's new, modern athletic complex, as well as serving as head of the athletic department. This was Coach Doherty's tenth year at Northwestern.

Demon Football '76

Coach A. L. Williams, in only his second season as head coach, led the Demons to their first break-even season in three years. Coach Williams' assistant coaches for 1976 were Gene Knecht — Defensive Coordinator, Joe R. Peace — Offensive Line Coach, Jerry Arledge — Defensive Line Coach, Al Miller — Defensive Ends-Linebacker Coach, Herbie Smith — Wide Receivers Coach, with Larry Rambin serving as graduate assistant, and Eugene Christmas, in his thirteenth year as NSU's Head Athletic Trainer.

The Demons finished the 1976 season at 5-5 with four victories coming in the partially completed Harry "Rags" Turpin Stadium (formerly Demon Stadium). The stadium, when completed, was to seat 15,000-plus fans and was to be ready for the 1977 season.

The much improved Demons were led in their 1976 comeback by Honorable Mention All-American and First Team All-Louisiana running back Sidney "Thundering Bull" Thornton, First Team All-Louisiana offensive tackle Stan Foster, First Team All-Louisiana defensive back Mike Maggio, Honorable Mention All-Louisiana linebacker Roscoe Lewis, and Honorable Mention All-Louisiana defensive back Willie B. Mosley.

Lamar — 17, NSU — 6

The Demons opened the 1976 season in Beaumont, Texas against the Lamar Cardinals. The Demons seemed to have had a hex on them though as penalties, turnovers, and an inability to get into the endzone when in scoring position proved to be NSU's downfall. The Demons whipped the Cards in every facet of the game — except scoring.

Sidney "Thundering Bull" Thornton led the Demons with 127 yards on 28 carries and scored NSU's only touchdown late in the ballgame. Sidney Thornton and Willie Washington were the players of the week.

NSU — 47, Stephen F. Austin — 0

Northwestern's Demons broke a nine-game losing streak by virtually destroying the outmanned Lumberjacks. It was NSU's first home game in two seasons.

In the eleventh battle for Chief Caddo, a 7½ foot wooden Indian, Stephen F. was never in the game. Northwestern exploded for 40 first-half points, and then coasted to a surprisingly easy victory. It was the widest margin of victory in the history of the thirty-three game series.

The entire Demon defense and NSU's stellar running back, Sidney Thornton, turned in sparkling performances. The Demon defense shut the Lumberjacks down completely and Thornton scored four TD's on only ten carries. Players of the week were Mike Boogaerts and Willie B. Mosley.

NSU — 17, Delta State — 7

The Demon defense continued to play steadily and freshman Mark Schroeder came off the bench to supply the needed offensive punch (15 carries for 73 yards) as Northwestern defeated the Statesmen from Cleveland, Mississippi.

Senior QB Stuart Wright also had a good night as he passed for one touch-down and ran for another. It was NSU's second straight win on the carpet of Harry "Rags" Turpin Stadium. Mark Schroeder and U. L. Finister were the players of the week.

Arkansas — 44, NSU — 24

Northwestern traveled to Jonesboro, Arkansas to meet the powerful Indians of Arkansas State for the second road game of the season. It proved to be a disaster as ASU rolled up 30 quick first-half points before the Demons could get untracked.

It wasn't all bad, though, as the Demons set a new school record for passing yardage — 334 yards. Stuart Wright had the best game of his career in completing 16 of 35 passes for 307 yards and three touchdowns. Wide Receiver Wyamond Waters grabbed 5 of the tosses for a near record 178 yards and 2 touchdowns. Willie Washington led the defense with 17 tackles. Washington and Wright were the players of the week.

NSU — 20, Nicholls — 8

"There's no place like home" and the Demons proved that with their third straight victory on the "turf." This was only the fourth meeting between the two schools and the Colonels had taken the previous three. The Demons broke that streak with a consistent offense and a stingy defense paced by Wyamond Waters, Sidney Thornton, Petey Perot, Gerald Savoie, and Donnie Pistorius. The players of the week were Wyamond Waters and Gerald Savoie.

Louisiana Tech — 35, NSU — 6

In the 41st Annual State Fair Classic, the Demons played almost dead-even with the hated Bulldogs in the first, third, and fourth periods. However, key mistakes in a crucial seven-minute span of the second quarter gave the Techsters four quick scores and a 35-0 lead as they coasted to their sixth consecutive State Fair triumph.

Sidney Thornton scored NSU's only TD as he picked up 125 yards on 19 carries. The "Thundering Bull" and Roscoe Lewis were the players of the week.

NSU — 21, Northeast — 9

Sidney "Thundering Bull" Thornton became Northwestern's all-time leading rusher with his outstanding performance against the Indians. Thornton picked up 192 yards on 34 carries and scored all three Demon TD's while eclipsing Donald Johnson's career rushing record of 2,253 yards.

The Demon defense returned to its stingy ways allowing only nine points and forcing nine Indian turnovers. Senior safety Mike Maggio led the defense with two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Maggio and Bill Hughes were the players of the week.

McNeese — 24, NSU — 15

Northwestern closed out its road schedule with the Cowboys of McNeese. The Demons played an excellent ballgame against the highly regarded Pokes, but turnovers plagued the Demons and killed all hopes of victory. The Demons fumbled three times and threw four interceptions.

Despite the turnovers, the tough Demon defense held NSU close until McNeese scored with just seconds to go. The loss gave Northwestern a final record of 1-4 on the road. Pat Collins and Pat Douget were the players of the week.

*NSU — 7,
USL — 3*

Homecoming proved to be a chilling, as well as exciting, experience as the undefeated and untied Ragin' Cajuns came to Harry "Rags" Turpin Stadium 22-point favorites and left with their first defeat of the season. In NSU's finest performance in years, the Demons won their fourth consecutive game on the turf.

In the wind and rain, Stuart Wright hit wide receiver Mike Almond with a 32 yard scoring strike in the first period. It proved to be all the Demons needed as NSU held USL, one of the top offensive teams in the nation, to only 163 total yards. Players of the week were Stuart Wright and Mike Maggio.

Southeastern La. — 34, NSU — 27

Northwestern suffered its first defeat at home against the tough Southeastern Lions. The see-saw battle saw NSU come from 13 points behind to tie it up late in the game only to lose it in the final minutes.

It was the close of NSU's first .500 season in three years as the Demons finished 4-1 at home. Players of the week were Wyamond Waters and U. L. Finister.

Scholastic Award

Senior QB Stuart Wright won the Scholastic Award for the 1976 season with a 3.79 GPA in Business Administration. Stuart finished his first season as NSU's starting QB by hitting 67 of 176 passes for 984 yards and seven TD's. Stuart finished his career with 1,874 yards, good enough for fifth position on NSU's all-time passing list.

Permanent Team Captains

Mike Maggio, senior safety from Vinton, and Sidney "Thundering Bull" Thornton, senior fullback from Baton Rouge, won the Permanent Team Captain awards for the 1976 season.

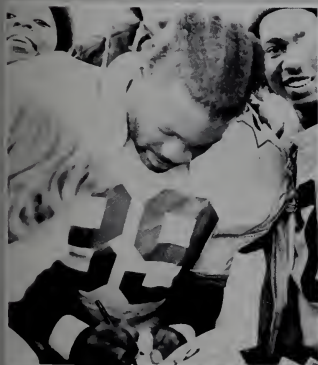

Maggio, a tough open-field tackler, paced the Demon defense with six interceptions, two of which came in the Northwestern upset of USL. Maggio closed out his career with eleven steals for 121 yards.

Thornton finished the 1976 season with 901 yards and 12 touchdowns. The "Thundering Bull" finished his tenure at NSU as the Demons' all-time leading rusher.

Sidney Thornton — All-American

The 1976 season was the culmination of a brilliant career for Sidney "Thundering Bull" Thornton. Thornton virtually destroyed the rushing and scoring record books at NSU. His 901 yards in nine games in 1976 gave him a four year total of 2,662 yards on 573 carries, which were Northwestern records. He scored 25 TD's in his career, which was also a new NSU standard. Thornton received numerous awards, including Honorable Mention All-American, First Team All-Louisiana, and NSU's Permanent Offensive Team Captain Award. Thornton was also selected to play in the Blue-Gray Game, which was a post-season all-star game held in Montgomery, Alabama. The "Thundering Bull" turned in a stellar performance as he picked up 151 yards on 19 carries and scored one touchdown against some of the nation's finest players. For his record-setting effort Thornton was chosen the Gray's Outstanding Offensive Player. Sidney is shown at left signing autographs after that game.

Coach Tynes Hildebrand

Demon Basketball

The Demon roundballers, under head coach Tynes Hildebrand, compiled a 15-8 record by the middle of February. The Demons picked up ten of the fifteen wins in the friendly confines of Prather Coliseum, while losing six on the road.

The Demons battled early in the season to stay around the .500 mark. Early losses to Lamar and McNeese didn't dampen the Demon spirit and by the time February rolled around NSU was riding a four-game winning streak.

Led by Northwestern's new all-time leading scorer Billy "The Kid" Reynolds, the Demons were working on an impressive debut into major college basketball. Reynolds surpassed the record of Demon great, James Wyatt, for most career points. Reynolds broke Wyatt's record of 1,874 points against the University of Southern Mississippi and stood a good chance to become the first man in Northwestern history to score 2,000 points in a career.

Other Demon standouts during the 1976-77 season were senior guard Dan Bell who led the Demons in free-throw shooting; junior guard Lester Davis was the team leader in assists; and junior forward Lester Elie and freshman center Frederick Piper led NSU in rebounding, along with senior forward Billy Reynolds.

Coach Charlotte Corley

Plagued with injuries throughout the season, the Lady Demons battled to an 11-10 worksheet in quest of their third consecutive winning season. At times during the season Coach Charlotte Corley had only three substitutes on the bench with her. This, combined with a tough schedule, left many with an unsure outlook for the 1976-77 season, but the Lady Demons performed admirably and skillfully.

Pacing the NSU five were sophomore guard Lisa Brewer, senior forward Diane Pittman, and freshman center Lillie Scott. Brewer led the team in scoring and assists. Pittman was second in scoring and rebounding, while Scott led the rebounding department and was third in scoring.

Baseball

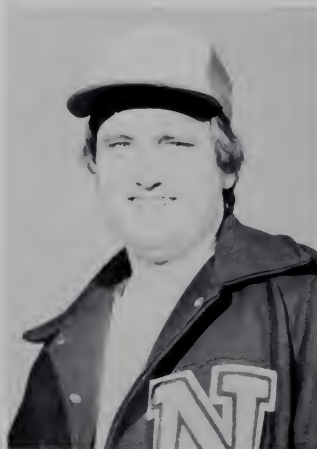

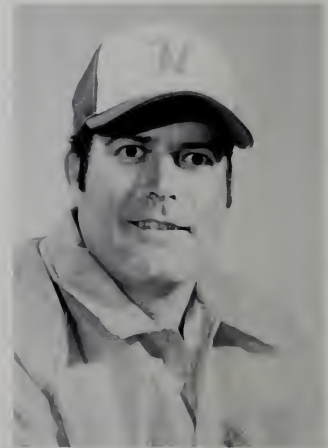

NSU's 1977 baseball team faced a rugged 52 game schedule during the spring. The schedule consisted of twenty-five twin bills and two single games. The Demons were coming off a 13-24-1 record in 1976. The 1977 Demon squad was young and inexperienced with only eight returning lettermen. Experience was especially lacking in the pitching department, as no Demon pitcher had ever thrown a baseball in senior college competition.

Top Demon players included junior outfielder Curtis Ardoin, who led the 1976 club with a .422 batting average, junior shortstop Nora Listach, and senior outfielder Mike Railey.

In Memoriam . . .

Miss Julianne Lightfoot, a 2-2 Psychology major from Mansfield died on October 26, 1976. Julie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Lightfoot, was born on June 22, 1957, and was graduated from Logansport High School in 1975.

While attending Northwestern State University, Miss Lightfoot was assistant editor to a university publication, Argus, in which she wrote the following poem:

RESURRECTION

I remember when we would spend our money
On gas for trips on April Sundays,
And these times were simple and right,
For I recall the vivid scenes and sights
Of flowers peeking out and in
And birds singing as if they'd been
Inspired by a waking land.
And we would stand
Gazing on its beauty.

But now, I must attend my duties,
And the essence of such times
Fade with each sunset and sunrise
Until the past is but one picture —
Producing a far more complex nature
That Life, our friend, will honor when we die.

Acknowledgements

As a Business Education major, I have learned that the major goal of education is change. This is what the 1976-77 Potpourri staff and I have tried to accomplish in this yearbook. We hope you as Northwestern State University students agree with these changes.

Thank you, staff, for the long hours spent working in Room 227, Arts and Sciences, and on your own to help make possible these changes. Now we must all move on to make the changes that are necessary to help better our university and the world in which we live.

Patsy L. Black
1976-77 Potpourri Editor

The 1976-77 Potpourri staff would like to offer special acknowledgements to the following persons for their greatly appreciated assistance throughout the year:

Mr. Ezra Adams
Mr. Dan McDonald
Mr. Jerry Pierce
V-P Richard Galloway
Taylor Publishing Company

As it has been said, "pictures make a yearbook" and with the help of John Haag and the various members of his photography staff, the 1976-77 Potpourri staff has used these pictures to their fullest degree. Another person that greatly assisted the Potpourri through the use of his photographic ability is Dr. Tommy Johnson. To both Dr. Johnson and the photography lab — "Thank you."
